The informant advised that during the past week [redacted]

[redacted] moved their bookmaking operation from the apartment above SAM FERRARA's tavern to an apartment on the near north side, which was rented to [redacted] the Negro girlfriend of [redacted]. About three days after their move, they were raided by Milwaukee PD at this apartment.

b6
b7C

During the past two weeks, the mother of [redacted] died, and the wife of SAM FERRARA died at Madison General Hospital. A short service for FERRARA's wife was held in Milwaukee and was attended by the entire membership of the Milwaukee LCN family and by JAMES SHIAVO and CCSMO DI SALVO, from the Madison LCN family.

During the past week, the informant was introduced by SAM FERRARA to his nephew JOE VALONE (phi). VALONE is visiting Milwaukee from Sicily, where his is a member of the LCN. According to FERRARA, his nephew will be made a member of the Milwaukee LCN family when FRANK BALISTRIERI gets out of Federal Prison.

The informant said [redacted] returned to Sicily on 9/20/71. [redacted] made several thousand dollars while visiting in this country, and informant did not know if [redacted] would return.

b7C

The informant heard JOE ENEA has relatives, possibly on his wife's side of the family, who are employed at the Federal Prison at Sandstone, Minnesota, and have allegedly been able to grant some favors to FRANK BALISTRERI, who is serving a prison term there.

[redacted] b7D

Informant said STEVE DE SALVO still has contact with [redacted] and has been having meetings with truckers and gravel haulers relative to possible garbage hauling contracts.

b6
b7C

UNDER NO CIRCUMSTANCES SHOULD ANY OF THE FOLLOWING INFORMATION BE DISSEMINATED OUTSIDE OF THE BUREAU:

During the past week while the informant was visiting [redacted] however, the informant was subsequently released. Informant said [redacted] was being charged with the [redacted]. The informant said [redacted] told him he had received information through [redacted] that rumors are being circulated by [redacted] that Milwaukee LCN member AUGGIE MANIACI has been "talking" to the police. [redacted] has also been circulating the rumor that JOHN AIELLO, Milwaukee LCN member who died about a year ago, was a "stool pigeon."

b6
b7D

VITO AIELLO, JOHN AIELLO's brother, was recently in a tavern run by NICK GENTILE when [redacted] allegedly "shot off his mouth" about his brother JOHN AIELLO talking to the police. VITO AIELLO subsequently went to STEVE DI SALVO to determine what he could do to "shut up"

[redacted] DI SALVO told him to wait until he could confer with FRANK BALISTRERI. The informant also understood AUGGIE MANIACI would also confer with STEVE DI SALVO in an effort to do something about [redacted]. The informant felt these rumors were being spread by [redacted] due to the fact JOHN AIELLO had obtained money from [redacted] by force prior to AIELLO's death.

Furthermore, investigation should be conducted in this case concerning possible violation of Section 1014, Title 18, U. S. Code. This section concerns loan and credit applications, generally. Since Subject is a tavern owner in Madison, there is a possibility that he may have applied for a loan guaranteed by the Federal Government. Investigation pending in Milwaukee on a similar case has uncovered a violation of this section.

[redacted]

On April 27, 1972, [redacted] advised he had read a newspaper article regarding the recent bank burglary at the Citizens State Bank, Birchwood, Wisconsin. Informant indicated this was the type of job that [redacted] was capable of handling. Informant noted [redacted] was recently released from Federal prison where he had been confined on bank burglary charges and that he had also committed burglaries in the western and northern part of Wisconsin which were never solved.

[redacted] The informant was approached recently by [redacted] who requested the informant to obtain a "paper job" for [redacted] which [redacted] could use to show legitimate employment, thus concealing his bookmaking activities. [redacted] would agree to pay costs of Social Security and withholding taxes in order to get his name listed as an employee at some company. The informant explained [redacted] is a gambler who plays cards and places bets on sporting events and the horses; however, does not act in any way as a bookmaker and is not associated with [redacted] in his bookmaking activity. [redacted] is presently living in an apartment on [redacted] with two girls and an individual of Greek extraction. [redacted] is actively engaged as a sports bookmaker at the present time. The informant will attempt to secure a "paper job" for [redacted] with [redacted] who operates an [redacted] shop in Milwaukee.

The informant advised that Milwaukee LCN members VITO AIELLO and NICK FUCARINO attempted to visit FRANK BALISTRERI at his home for the purpose of paying their respects to him as boss of the LCN family after his release from prison; however, they were unable to get anyone to answer the door. AIELLO telephonically contacted PETER BALISTRERI to advise him of the situation and was told that when FRANK BALISTRERI was ready to see them, he would let them know. This situation caused dissension as far as AIELLO and FUCARINO are concerned, and they are unable to understand why BALISTRERI refused to see them.

[redacted]

The informant heard JIMMY JENNARO, who formerly worked as a bartender for FRANK BALISTRERI, was possibly going to take a job with SALLY PAPIA at the Knickerbocker Hotel. PAPIA and FRANK BUCCIERI are opening a new restaurant in Forest Park, Illinois, near Giannotti's Restaurant. [redacted] is taking an apartment in Cicero, Illinois, to oversee the remodeling of this restaurant.

The informant indicated arrangements were being made for a party to be held at Sally's Restaurant to raise money for the wife of [redacted] who was recently sent to State prison on strong arm battery charges.

The informant received information from a nurse at Mount Sinai Hospital that FRANK BALISTRERI's wife was admitted to the hospital on April 10, 1972, after being severely beaten by her husband. The nurse indicated Mrs. BALISTRERI was black and blue around the eyes and looked as though she had been thrown down the stairs. At the time she was admitted, [redacted]

b7C

[redacted] made the remark, "That's the last time, he's not going to get away with it again." It is believed Mrs. BALISTRERI was beaten up by her husband as she had made remarks about divorcing him while he was in jail. The informant indicated BALISTRERI's daughters did not want their mother to be placed in a private room for fear BALISTRERI would come to the hospital and do further physical harm to their mother.

Informant noted that FRANK BALISTRERI has been using the red and white Cadillac leased by [redacted] recently. It was also indicated that none of the old time members of the Milwaukee LCN family have had contact with BALISTRERI since his release from jail.

STEVE DE SALVO recently approached [redacted] for a possible job for his son-in-law. [redacted] refused as he does not want DE SALVO hanging around his place of business.

The informant believed [redacted] was now working at the Shorecrest Hotel, which was recently purchased by the BALISTRERI family.

[redacted] who runs the [redacted] Milwaukee, has been doing a good deal of business with the Grande Cheese Company, which is run by [redacted]. According to [redacted] [redacted] has financial problems and is attempting to expand the cheese company operation.

The informant has had no recent contact with members of the Madison LCN family CARLO CAPUTO, COSMO DI SALVO, VINCENT TROIA, MATTHEW PELLETTER, or SAM BUSCEMI. The informant noted JAMES SCHIAVO has a son, TONY SCHIAVO, who is married to the daughter of Milwaukee LCN member NICK FUCARINO. There had been rumors that TONY SCHIAVO would be made a member of the Madison LCN family; however, both TONY's father, JAMES SCHIAVO, and NICK FUCARINO were against having TONY being made a member of the Madison LCN family.

It is to be emphasized during these interviews that the interviews should be primarily directed towards the killing of LOUIS FAZIO. It is felt that by doing this, inroads and possible rapport can be established with various of the above-listed subjects so that future contacts and interviews can be conducted directing towards development of these individuals as PCI's.

Informant stated he did not feel this would be at all unusual for him.

Informant stated that the [redacted] that he knew was an aluminum siding man in Milwaukee whom he has not seen in a considerable length of time and is not now aware of his present whereabouts.

TE was shown photograph taken at the photographic surveillance of Richie's Tavern and identified individuals there as [redacted] JIMMY JENNARO, and [redacted]

Concerning JIMMY JENNARO, informant was not sure as to what his relationship was at Richie's Tavern; however, he advised there was a good possibility that one of two things could be true. 1) JENNARO is operating bookmaking out of Sally's Restaurant. 2) JENNARO is the collector for BALISTRERI.

Informant stated that he would immediately attempt to determine the association of JENNARO with the other individuals involved at Richie's.

At the party informant noted that FRANK spent almost all of the evening in the company of his [redacted] going around greeting everyone. Informant stated that also at the party was [redacted], [redacted] and this indicated to him that apparently there was no hard feelings between them and the trouble was just between BALISTRIERI and PAPIA.

Informant noted that [redacted] was not planning to go into practice with his brother JOSEPH and was going into practice by himself, possibly not even in the Milwaukee area, so as to get away from the influence of his father and the associates of his father.

Informant noted that in his establishment his juke box service is furnished by CARL DENTICE, and he has told DENTICE on numerous occasions to remove the juke box as he does not need it, but the juke box stays for some unknown reason. Informant noted that no one ever plays the juke box, with the exception of someone celebrating an anniversary or birthday, for which they have two appropriate records in the juke box.

Informant noted also that his cigarette machine is serviced by [redacted] and that he was the uncle of [redacted] and the brother of the mother of FRANK BALISTRIERI.

In a memorandum of a recent date, to this file, it was noted that a meeting was held in Madison, and among those attending were [redacted], JOE AMATO, and [redacted]. It was further noted this information was obtained from a sensitive source, and it was felt additional investigation into this matter should be held in abeyance in order to protect that source.

Interviews with the above seemed desirable, if such interviews can be conducted without compromising the original source. In view of this, the following course of action is planned:

A determination will be made as to the degree of risk involved to source if interviews are conducted.

If feasible, 92-NEW cases will be opened on each of the above and they will be interviewed.

It has been determined that CARLO CAPUTO, MI 92-415, may no longer reside at 107½ State Street, Madison, Wisconsin. CAPUTO is known to have converted the space at this address into apartments. Tenants at the apartment advised that CAPUTO collects the rent monthly, in person, but except for the rent collections, they do not see him.

Investigation will continue and determination will be made as to CAPUTO's new address.

JIMMY SCHIAVO, MI 92-555 continues to attend real estate school. The purpose of this is for SCHIAVO to obtain his real estate license so that he can be a licensed broker in the state of Wisconsin. The school is being

FUTURE PLANS

The progress of JIMMY SCHIAVO, through real estate licensing school, will be closely monitored. As it has been previously noted in 92-555, SCHIAVO is known to have made trips to the West Coast in the last 24 months, and it is believed these trips could have real estate overtones. Additionally, Reciprocal Licensing Agreements in the real estate area, between the state of Wisconsin and other states, will be determined.

In regard to CARLO CAPUTO, interviews with his tenants, at 10½ State Street, will be conducted, and additional intelligence information concerning CAPUTO will be gathered.

Source advised that he was in attendance at the wake and funeral of [REDACTED] wife of BIG JOHN ALIOTO, deceased former head of the Milwaukee LCN. Source advised that just about all of the old timers of the Milwaukee hoodlum and Italian element were in attendance; however, he noted there was no one from Kenosha or Chicago there and JIMMY SCHIAVO was the only person he saw there from Madison.

Source further advised that he was also in attendance at the wedding of ALIOTO's granddaughter on 12/23/73; however, this was attended by mostly young people and the only exceptions he noted were [REDACTED]

Source advised that he had been in conversation recently with [REDACTED] was complaining as to his poor health; however, his health apparently was not bothering him making a deposit at the West Allis State Bank. Source advised he was not able to determine the amount of the deposit but judging from [REDACTED] cautiousness, he would assume that it was adequate.

Source advised that he has not been able to place any wagers into any of the operations going on in Milwaukee as he had not been doing it for some time and apparently [REDACTED] are only taking bets from people who have been betting with them on a continuing basis.

Source advised concerning speculation on whether STEVE DI SALVO was attempting a takeover, with assistance of STELLOH, of FRANK BALISTRIERI, that it is a definite possibility in view of the fact that when FRANK BALISTRIERI went to jail, DI SALVO was supposed to become head in the meantime; however, BALISTRIERI appointed his brother PETER and source felt that possibly DI SALVO has never quite recovered from the slight.

Source advised that [redacted] is no longer in Kansas City and is now working at the MGM building in Las Vegas, Nevada as is apparently all of the Milwaukee Italian element.

Source advised that [redacted] of Dave's Way Travel Agency is still having weekly junkets to Las Vegas to the Stardust Hotel for all of the gambling element in Milwaukee. Individuals such as [redacted] [redacted] are frequent users of these junkets for their trips to Las Vegas.

Source stated that [redacted] was recently in town for the holidays; however, his presence was not felt by many as [redacted] is not held in very high regard in Milwaukee and is considered more or less a sponger.

Source was not familiar with the exact breakdown of the Madison family; however, the following are members:

COSMO DI SALVO

b6
b7C

Source advised that while the above was the breakdown of the Madison and Milwaukee families, there is more and more feeling in Milwaukee that BALISTRERI is in fact only a capo out of Chicago and takes his orders from one of the bosses in Chicago, exactly who was unknown to the informant.

"Source further advised that BALISTRERI was very tight with Milwaukee PHIL ALDERISO who was now deceased; however, who was very influential in Chicago, and through ALDERISO met and became very friendly with SAM GIANCANA as well as MARSHALL CAIFANO. Source advised that CAIFANO has recently been released from prison where he had been incarcerated for almost ten years and is now attempting to assert himself in Chicago. Source stated that GIANCANA still influences the Chicago family even though he is a Mexican.

Source stated that in his estimation, BALISTRERI gets all of his "clout" from CAIFANO and GIANCANA and he himself is not highly regarded throughout the US.

Source advised that while FRANK LA GALBO is a member of the LCN, he is actually controlled by the Chicago Family rather than the Milwaukee Family.

Source advised the Milwaukee LCN family refers to its members as "the Outfit". Source advised the family is set up with a council that includes the boss, underboss, enforcer, and capos from Madison, Kenosha and Milwaukee. These men make all policy decisions involving family members as well as day-to-day family business. Source advised for all practical purposes, FRANK PETER BALISTRERI, LCN boss, and STEVEN JOHN DE SALVO, who is the enforcer but is acting as the Number Two Man, run the family with all others being yes-men.

Source advised when FRANK BALISTRERI took over, he shelved or retired the "old moustache petes" and they no longer have a say in family business. Thus, there is little or no need for meetings due to the small number of members making family decisions. Source stated FRANK BALISTRERI maintains contact with the active council members but normally handles most decisions between STEVE DE SALVO and himself.

Source advised he believes Madison is run out of the Milwaukee family as CARLO CAPUTO is a member of the Milwaukee LCN Council. Source states CAPUTO is ranked no higher than a capo. The Madison group is very weak and there is no information they are doing anything that is of significance.

Source advised he believes the Milwaukee LCN setup is as follows:

|                              |   |
|------------------------------|---|
| Boss                         | FRANK BALISTRERI  |

| Capos                        | PETER BALISTRERIALBERT ALBANO (Kenosha)CARLO CAPUTO (Madison) |

[redacted]

b6

Source also advised that most decisions are made by a council in Milwaukee and the members of the council are FRANK BALISTRERI, PETE BALISTRERI, JOE CAMINETTI, STEVE DE SALVO, ALBERT ALBANO, CARLO CAPUTO, [redacted]

[redacted]
Source advised this information is based on numerous conversations with the Italian element in Milwaukee as well as confidences expressed to him from family members and knowledge obtained by growing up in Milwaukee with these people.

Source advised he believes the Madison family leadership to be CARLO CAPUTO and CAPUTO is simply a capo of the Milwaukee family and sits on the Council. However, due to CAPUTO's old age and illness, he has not been very active nor is he very influential.

Source identified the following individuals as present or suspected members of the Milwaukee LCN:

Re memo of SA [redacted] dated 2/27/78.

During the last 60 days efforts have been made to determine the present activities of captioned individual. Surveillances and spot checks conducted during the daylight hours reflect that captioned individual has changed residences and now resides at 3221 Derby Drive, Madison, Wisconsin. This is a large light brown structure on the east side of Derby Drive, which is located in the Arbor Hills Subdivision south of Madison. Captioned individual continues to drive a silver Chrysler, license number R23750. During the week captioned individual leaves his residence between 9:00 and 10:00 a. m. and goes to Bee's Tavern located at 1109 South Park Street, Madison. Captioned individual owns this establishment. SCHIAVO usually remains at that location all day, leaving now and then for periods of two or three hours to run errands and to go home and rest. During the day he also employs his son, ANTHONY SCHIAVO, at the tavern. Also, frequently ANTHONY's wife works there as a cook during the lunch hour. ANTHONY SCHIAVO drives a dark red Electra 225, license number BB31, or a blue pickup truck, license number D62669. ANTHONY lives at 3006 Post Road, Madison. His residence is approximately 200 yards from JAMES SCHIAVO's residence, and they are mutually visible from each other.

have failed to reflect any other members of the hoodlum element at these locations.

Also, on occasion, the writer has entered Bee's Tavern, conducting himself as a customer, and has failed to note any unusual activity at that location.

On 4/6, 4/12 and 4/19/78, the writer spent time at Bee's Tavern and failed to note any unusual activity at that time. JAMES SCHIAVO was present at these times and on 4/19/78 was there the entire evening until at least 12:00 midnight.

In view of the above, surveillances and spot checks will be conducted during the next month on JAMES SCHIAVO during the evening hours and on the weekends in an effort to determine if he is involved in unusual activities at those times. Further, a current photo will be taken of him and his son, ANTHONY, in an effort to update the file.

During the previous sixty days, additional efforts have been made concerning captioned individual and his son, ANTHONY J., to determine what contacts, if any, these individuals presently were having with other members of the organized crime community. These efforts included contacts with other law enforcement agencies and surveillances both inside of the captioned individual's tavern and on captioned individual himself. During these surveillances on the movements of JAMES SCHIAVO, he was not noted at any time in contact with any of the other organized crime figures in the City of Madison. Specifically, he was not noted in contact with SAM P. BUSCEMI or CARLO CAPUTO.

During this period, however, SCHIAVO was noted to have purchased a new car, a white Cadillac, which bears his old license plates, R23-750. SCHIAVO continues to reside on Derby Down Road in the Arbor Hills subdivision, approximately 300 yards from his son's home, which is located at 3006 Post Road, Madison.

Activities which were monitored inside of the tavern include the actions of customers, as well as the employees. The four major employees of this tavern are JAMES SCHIAVO, his wife, MARY, and ANTHONY SCHIAVO and his wife. Infrequently, additional help is required and during the last thirty days, it has been noted that a new bartender is now employed there. This bartender's name is [redacted]. She has light brown hair, thin build, approximately 6'1", and very lanky looking. Conversations with [redacted] up to the present have been on a pretext basis. It has been determined that she is a recent graduate of the [redacted] and during her years there was heavily involved in athletic activities and
